Visa:

Sai is not responsible for visa issuing, that being a responsibility of the final passengers who must contact the consular representative of each country they will travel to.

NOTE: Visa conditions are the prerogative of countries and can be changed unilaterally by each country at any time, and the Sai is not responsible for this situation.

Travel and Health Regulations:

Clients are solely responsible for understanding all travel and health regulations, including passports, visas, vaccinations, and currency exchange. Any issues or expenses resulting from a lack of awareness regarding these regulations will be the client's responsibility, even if changes occur after the tour is booked.

Travel and Health Insurance:

Sai strongly recommends obtaining travel and health insurance. Clients should verify that their policy includes coverage for terrorism and natural disasters. Sai and its suppliers are not liable for any accidents that occur to a passenger at the travel destination. Passengers are strongly advised to purchase additional travel insurance, as some plans do not cover accidents. Therefore, it is essential for passengers to check if their chosen plan includes accident coverage or to obtain it separately if it does not.
